Move, dance and clap to the rhythm of songs you love. Practice clapping or moving with the beat of the song. Maybe someone in your family will join you and you can have a dance party. I know you did this last week, but keep it up! *Listen to your favorite singer or song. While you are listening, act like you are the singer. Was it fun? Now draw yourself as the singer on a stage with lots of fans. Why do you thing music is so fun? Let me know and show me the picture.	Move, dance and clap to the rhythm of songs you love. Sing along while trying to mimic the singer of the song. Maybe you can have an American Idol party with your family. I know you have been doing this, but keep it up. *Let's see how we can create different pitches (different notes or sounds). Ask you parents for help. Take 5 glasses and fill them up with different amounts of water. Tap them lightly with a metal spoon. Do they make different sounds? Why do you thing they make different sounds? What is your theory?	Review the symphony using the link below.	Do some research on your favorite performer. Let me know some interesting facts about this person. What is you favorite song by this person? Why should I listen to this person?	Tell me something you like about music. How does it make you feel? Why do you listen to it? What is something that I should listen to?
		What is your favorite string instrument? How do you think string instruments make sounds? What is your theory?	Continue working on recorder karate. I have included the sheet music as a link on my web page. I am also including some practice links. You may send me videos, if you feel that you are ready to test. Some students have already tested a few times. For those of you without recorders at home, you may use any instrument, or copy the sheet music from the link and write the letter over the notes for practice. Here are links to the treble clef for help.	Find your recorders from last year. Continue working on recorder karate. I have included the sheet music as a link on my web page. Continue to work on writing an original piece of music. It does not need words, but you may write lyrics. The song does need three parts: Verse, chorus and a bridge. Send me those videos and check in by Thursday for credit this week. I need check ins by Tuesday and Thursday. I really enjoyed the songs that you sent last week. Keep expanding on the song. If you have not put words to your song, add words. If you don't have a chorus yet, add a chorus. You get the idea. The song does not have to be perfect. I just need to see that you are practicing and creating. Please contact me for any help. Keep working on our set list.
