Move, dance and clap to the rhythm of songs you love. Practice clapping or moving with the beat of the song. Maybe someone in your family will join you and you can have a dance party. Let's see sound: Get a parent to help. You will need a small bowl, clear plastic wrap, a rubber band, a few grains of uncooked rice, beans or pasta, a cooking pot and a wooden spoon. Cover the top of the bowl with the plastic wrap and secure with the rubber band. Set the rice on top of the plastic wrap. Hold the cooking pot near the bowl and hit the bottom with the wooden spoon. The rice will "dance" on the plastic. Sound waves from the pot causes the plastic to vibrate and the rice to move. You saw sound!	Move, dance and clap to the rhythm of songs you love. Sing along while trying to mimic the singer of the song. Maybe you can have an American Idol party with your family. Let's see sound: -Get a parent to help. -You will need a small bowl, clear plastic wrap, a rubber band, a few grains of uncooked rice, beans or pasta, a cooking pot and a wooden spoon. -Cover the top of the bowl with the plastic wrap and secure with the rubber band. With your parent's guidance, do a little web research and come up with some interesting facts about how your favorite musician got started. What is your favorite song by the artist? What do you like about them? Send me an email with who you chose and tell me some interesting information. Impress me. Review the notes on the treble clef. Review the notes on the treble clef.	Continue working on recorder karate. Use the link to access the music sheet is on my music weebly page. There are also some practice links below. Practice Videos When you are ready to test, feel free to send me a video through the ISVSpecials Webpage.	Find your recorders from last year. If you cannot find them, use a keyboard or even an app that mimics a piano. Review the songs for last year's recorder karate. Send me videos of yourself playing these songs.
